

Handmade A VARIETY OF PERCEPTIONS

Amber is the most beautiful gemstone on our Earth. This stone is generally found in association with lignite coal, which is also the fossilized remains of trees and other plant material. Amber is considered a gemstone and it has been always highly prized for its warmth and beauty. Amber has different poetic names - "tears of the sea", "gift of the sun", and has become a symbol of health and happiness.

The most fantastically beautiful use of amber in history was the creation of "the amber room" in Catherine Palace (Russia). Imagine if you can an entire room decorated with panels of cut amber, gold, Venetian mirrors, Florentine mosaics worked in amber, wood and mother-of-pearl inlay floors - all of it lit by candlelight. It was described as the "eighth wonder of the world".

Amber color (from yellow to milky white), probably caused and continues to cause people to associate with gold. Already in the times of the ancient civilizations of amber has earned a reputation as a kind of "currency" - he prized so dearly. In the Middle Ages monopoly on amber extraction passed from one country to another, which indicated that its extraordinary popularity.

But the main value of amber - in its beauty: the original texture of the stone, a variety of sizes and shapes, you can use it for a variety of jewelry work.
